

Tips for Safe Summer Fun for You and Your Dog!

With summer upon us, it's time to let the kids and pets outside so they can burn off some steam and enjoy the beautiful outdoors. Kids and dogs have a lot in common. They tend to let loose.... running and jumping, going here and there with no thought of what dangers may be present around them. As with your children, your dog's well-being is your responsibility. That's why it's important to keep safety and good health high on your checklist, so summertime will be a fun time for your whole family... including your pets.

Following are some things to watch out for this summer, in order to make sure that your dog is around to enjoy many long hot summers for years to come...

Walk or exercise your dog early in the day.

Temperatures are cooler in the early morning hours, so try to get outside with your dog before the heat of the summer sun makes exercise too dangerous for you both.

Check your dog for ticks.

While romping outdoors, your dog is very like to pick up some unwanted hitchhikers. Upon returning indoors, it's wise to check your dog (and yourself!) for ticks and other bug bites.

Some dogs should be shaved, while others should not.

Some dogs need relief from their heavy coats, but please are aware that not all dogs are suitable for shaving. Those with double-coats (or undercoats) do NOT need to be shaved. The reason: their undercoat acts as an air conditioner during the summer months.

Keep your dog hydrated.

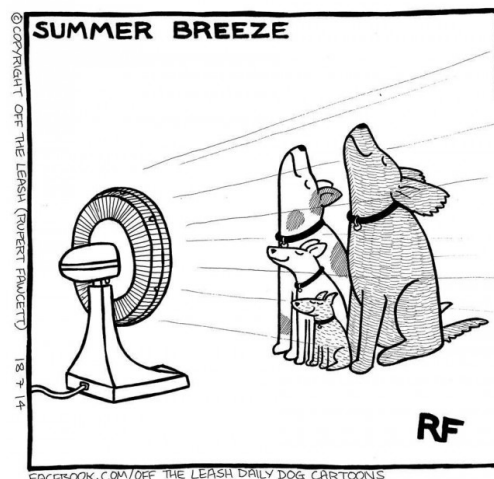

To encourage your dog to drink more water, spike his water bowl with a little flavor! For example, add some tuna water or beef broth to his bowl of cool fresh water. The added flavor will have him slurping to the bottom of the bowl.

Dogs can get sunburned!

Sunscreen formulated for pets is available that will protect your dog's exposed skin. A dog's nose is usually the most susceptible area to sunburn. Be sure to provide plenty of shade for your dog, and never leave him exposed to direct sunlight (such as an open kennel with no shade) in the heat of the day.

Never leave your dog in the car on a warm day.

Leaving your dog in the car during the summer — even when it doesn't seem that hot to you — is similar to putting your dog in an oven! Dogs feel heat differently than humans do. Plus, cars heat up very quickly inside! Leaving the windows partially open is NOT enough. Parking in the shade WON'T keep the car cool enough. In a matter of a few minutes, your dog could be overcome by heat stroke.

Dogs suffer from heat stroke, too.

Dogs can quickly become overheated. They cool down by panting, and in extremely hot weather the heat can easily overpower their ability to adjust their body temperature. Some signs of heatstroke are excessive panting, excessive thirst, glazed eyes, increased salivation, dry gums that are pale, rapid pulse. Get your dog in the shade, apply cool water, give him small amount of cool, not cold water, and get dog to vet.

Some ways to keep your dog cool when outside can include portable fans to generate a breeze that will help lessen the impact of hot weather. Also, place a tarp over your dogs kennel to give him a shaded space., Freeze water in 2-liter bottles and place them in your dog's crate, Cooling mats are available for dogs; some of them contain a crystal material that turns into a gel when wet, allowing them to remain wet and cool for a longer period. Frozen dog treats will keep your dog cool and give your dog something fun to do outdoors on hot summer days.

Don't overdo outdoor play time with your dog in the summer.

Many dogs are so enthusiastic when it comes to fetching a stick or a ball that they will literally run until they drop from exhaustion. But in hot weather, they may drop from heat stroke before a physical level of exhaustion would normally tell them it was time to rest.

Beware of hot pavement underneath your dog's paws.

Sun-baked blacktop can easily fry an egg. Imagine standing barefoot on your stove burner. This is what it's like for your dog when their unprotected pads reach the surface of a road, parking lot, or even sidewalks. Try to keep your dog off of hot pavement in the heat of the day. Instead, encourage your dog to walk and play on cool green grass.

Don't use a glass dog water bowl outdoors.

A glass water dish acts just like a magnifying glass when left in direct sunlight on a wooden surface (like your deck). Just the same, a round bottom bowl placed in a wire rack can concentrate the sun's rays and cause a fire that could actually burn your house down.

Avoid taking your dog to crowded summer events.

Taking your dog along to the local festival may sound like fun, but large crowds (and the excitement and confusion they create) can be very stressful for dogs, both physically and emotionally.

Never leave your dog unattended around the pool.

Not all dogs are good swimmers! Just like a small child, when a dog unexpectedly falls in the water he may not be able to get back out on his own. The sides of the pool typically pose a problem for a dog's short legs.

Summer is a time for fun. It's also a time to be cautious and conscientious. It's up to you to watch for health and safety issues that may adversely affect your dog during the hot summer months.

Board of Directors Meeting Minutes – May 13, 2015

Location: Golden Corral, Cumming, GA.

Board Members Present: Darlene Kelley, Andrea Bradford, Marilee Thorsby, Pat Albro, Johnny Bridges, Glenda Tucker, Paul Averill, Ann Fultz

Call to Order: President Darlene Kelley, at 6:23 PM

Agenda: Vote to Accept Agenda/Additions: Darlene requested a vote to accept the Agenda. Andrea made the motion, Johnny 2nd. A corrected version of the April Minutes was sent to the Board adding the Money Market Account to the initial version.

Report of Secretary: No AKC news, Dog Press discussed declining membership of dog clubs – gave ideas to promote involvement – most are being used by our Club, such as a variety of activities and events.

Lifetime Membership: Board has voted on the new Lifetime Members for the Club – to be finalized by the members.

Report of Committees:

Cluster: Working on the 2016 judges. Darlene's Spreadsheet – judges over last 3 years, suggested judges, unfavorable judges. Working to get suggested judges for at least 2 days, as soon as can be arranged. Paul suggested the clubs use a fairer way to select judges. Newer judges need a chance – and may offer a less expensive way to fill judge "assignments".

Membership: discussion of "grace period" for late payment of dues. After the May date – members must be individually accepted back in to the Club. Sharon Ero and Dianna Petryk have paid their dues and hence, were voted to be accepted to Club membership by Johnny and 2nd by Pat.

Membership: smkcg69@gmail is the new contact address for the Board. Progress is being made on the Website. She asks for design input on the new website. Please use www.smkc.biz as the new addy for the site. Will be easier to use and has a "members only" section. Works on tablets and iPads. Next Board meeting we will be voting on the design.

Site Committee: Liaison Committee Review Report: Discussion of Fowler Park and Hall (Chicopee Woods) County Ag Center. Outside but covered areas, and inside areas are available for use in the future.

Unfinished Business:

June 10th - Social/Dogs (on a leash) Welcome event: Contact of PO Box offers access to a Forsyth County venue. Pat Hall will provide direction for the food/picnic at Fowler Park. Ann suggested we have activities for the attending dogs – modified agility, rally and obedience activities will be planned as well as fun events. Johnny suggested Hot Dog Dive. Ashley Albro will help.

Pet Expo Refund: Darlene stated the refund for the Gwinnet Expo will be useful for the June Social event.

Logo: Raine has a copy of the Logo and it needs to be copied to members of the Board and Club notebook.

Storage Space: Suggestion - a Yard Sale at the June event (suggested price attached). Pat Albro made a motion to put everything at the storage shed – Books etc, and anything members have that is no longer used or current be brought to the event. Marilee 2nd. Motion passed.

Report on Contacts Made:

Pat Albro will contact Ms Jamie Fletcher as a Public Relations Person – possibility. Claire Fletcher has been contacted by Pat as a Junior Handler candidate.

Darlene has received a response from AKC regarding Hall County Club activities/ Chicopee Center and Civic Center for venues. We have been advised that Hall County is an "open area" and any All-Breed Club should be able to use facilities. Andrea brought up that our Club needs to have an available area with sites for dog club venues. Hall provides for this need. Discussed – our Club needs to present activities/venues in Hall to secure the area for our needs.

New Business:

Membership Recruitment: Paid members to date – pending

Calendar review: Match chair/Support:

Match offered at the August Meeting. Chair – Karen West with help from Andrea, Darlene, and Marilee. Pat made the motion to have the Meeting/Match at Fowler Park Pavilion. Marilee 2nd. Motion passed.

RDO date: Ann stated we had the last RDO day at the Pups in the Park in Dawsonville and can be involved again. Pat suggested the festival at Dahlonega in the fall. Ruckers and Dogapalooza also mentioned. Revisit in June.

December Obedience/Rally Trial: Dates are December 5-6, 2015. Must confirm by July. Darlene suggested we begin looking for a committee and how to move forward financially. Ann stated that the local obedience club had 36 dogs for puppy obedience, and seems there is a great interest for dog activities/opportunities in Hall. Chicopee is limited to one ring. Other proposals would be accepted. Marilee brought up that Rally could be dropped at this venue. Our Cluster shows offer rally at both events now. Paul reiterated that not all venues need to be profitable. Darlene stated offering some of the Novice and non-regular classes will offer more classes and entries.

Next Meeting & Adjournment: Next Board Meeting will be Wednesday June 10, before the Members Meeting at 6:15 at Fowler Park. Johnny made the motion to adjourn. Pat 2nd. Meeting adjourned at 7:23 PM.
